This convoy to Ottawa next week on Sunday is a peaceful protest. Anybody that joins this protest or this convoy from either coast-to-coast is to adhere to the rules of the convoy, and I am dead serious. If anybody fucks with them, they are out. Emergency vehicles have the right of way. When, uh – when the lights are flashing, we pull over and they are the utmost attention. Law enforcement is to be respected. Never ever not respected. We are working with law enforcement across the country in big cities and we have their approval a hundred percent until we fuck that up. Convoy rules. There’s a code of ethics we’re gonna have to follow. We want this done properly. Right now the public is one hundred percent on the truckers and this mandate - removal of mandate’s side. We do not want to lose that. When we start acting like assholes, we lose that. Let’s keep our eyes on the prize, and hit the federal government where it hurts. We want the mandates gone. Mandates need to be removed and we’re not leaving until they are. Thanks, guys.
2.	66 (TRN 66(a) – Tab 2 of Defence binder)	Chris Barber Tiktok (#7098) posted on January 27, 2022;	Good morning, Canada. Okay. Thunder Bay, Ontario. Just – just getting in for daylight. A lot of radio chatter. We are, uh – we’re ready to roll out of Thunder Bay, so we’re gonna come up though the expressway and onto 17, apparently, and, uh, we’re a couple days away, guys. We’re coming. We’re coming. We’re coming, we’re coming, we’re coming. And if our politicians get any dumber – those comments of Trudeau yesterday, I’m sorry, guy, but that was just horrible. Radical fringe group. So if radical fringe group – I just wanna stress this to everybody, those are OPP in the two unmarkeds in front of us; those guys are the utmost best guys I’ve ever dealt with in my life. They are here to support us, even though they’re keeping the public safe. But if we’re a radical fringe group, why is law enforcement helping us so much? Come on. Like, come on, Trudeau. It doesn’t make any sense and you’re so wrong right now. Anyway, be safe everybody out there, please. Let’s keep this big ‘ol convoy the best thing it can be, ‘cause that’s what it is right now.

Remember today, whatever happens, it's peaceful, please. The whole world needs to know that. This is peaceful. This is not something we want to start that causes any issues, please. We are not that kind of people. We don't want any trouble. Okay? Make it happen, guys. We all – all over the country, it'll happen today and it'll happen properly and safely.

Lots of us were going to do one day of convoy to parliament then go back home. But no fucking way. For us to be purposely blocked in like that pissed us off. Grid lock is one thing parking equipment infront of us and blocking side roads is another. We're staying and holding our ground !!!! And yes we're all staying g peaceful.” At 4:25:10 PM From Mr. Barber to Nicole SK Trucker “Yup playing games” and at 4:25:22 PM “Be safe and no violence”.

So, I'm gonna do a couple of videos tonight, just to kinda get caught up on where I should be throwing a lot of videos out there to keep everybody well-informed, but I'll give you the shot outside my hotel room here, 'cause I probably shouldn't be doing this for security reasons but I don't give a fuck. These are all these peaceful trucks out here. And, yeah, we're getting them all straight. They're not laying on the horns at three o'clock in the fucking morning anymore, which is nice, guys. P-, appreciate that. It's called compromise and we're doing super good with it. We're doing

			super good with it. Everybody's holding the lines. Everybody's doing an amazing job. So, here's the thing that scares me the most out of the whole thing: The only way out of this for the government is to have like a January 6th-style insurrection, right? Because right now we have public approval on our side. The government is scared shitless. They know they fucked up. And they know that in a minute, we got more guys coming that are going to take, you know – come and help, so we need to make sure it's peaceful. Period. No ifs, ands, buts. It's a powder keg. The last thing we need is a January 6-style insurrection. That is my biggest fear. I will do everything in my power. Tomorrow - I'm feeling a little bit better, I've been down for a couple of days. I'll get out to you guys on the side streets tomorrow. I've got a portable VHF radio now. I can chat with everybody. Um, yeah, just run myself into the ground. Run myself right into the ground. I haven't had enough sleep. It's just a little bit of pressure sometimes, you know? Just a little bit, I guess. Tamara's stressed right to the nuts, too, so – um, we got this, guys. So, I'll keep talking to you. Keep talking to me. Tell me what your concerns are. Get a hold of me. The phone rings 90 percent of the time, so what's a little bit more? See you guys.
8.	135, Vol 1, Tab 28	1196	Pages 2 - 3 February 2, 2022 at 12:35:56 PM from unknown to Mr. Barber “Hi Chris, I'm sure you're being contacted a lot right now, but I just wanted to send you a line from the ground and let you know that some supporter sentiments are shifting. Businesses are starting to complain about being obstructed, a mother with an autistic child has had to take her kid away because of the honking. And we're hearing more supporters are starting to change their tune. I'm just wondering if some adjustments can be made so this doesn't start to shift in Trudeau's favour.” 12:44:49 PM from Mr. Barber to unknown “We are trying to work with city and silence the horns. Trudeau has no interest in hearing us so we can't just leave”

Are you worried abt that lawsuit at all?” and on February 5, 2022 at 12:22:51 AM from Mr. Barber to Big Baller “Buddy all is well. I haven't pulled a horn in week. I've been trying to get guys to play by rules”

12.	74 (TRN 74(a) – Tab 10 of Defence binder)	Chris Barber Tiktok (#0182) posted on February 7, 2022;	I’m losing my dates here. Can, uh, the politicians please come to the table here to get some shit resolved so we can all go home, please? City of Ottawa, please, uh, it’s been brought to our attention that ri-, riot police are being brought in Ottawa tonight starting at six o’clock. Riot police, people. Riot police. So we’ve had snipers on roofs of buildings, we’ve had – come on, like, c-, this is ridiculous. I have never hugged so many people and shook so many hands in my life, and they got riot police coming in tonight? Guys, we wanna keep everybody safe. We don’t want the old police service here to be engaging and – and provoking us into things that we’re absolutely, under no circumstances, going to do. We do not engage. If they have a gun against your forehead, you ask how you can comply. That’s where we’re headed with this, unfortunately. So please, guys, everything will work itself out in the courts after. There’s been a whole bunch of rules and laws that have been broken, especially by the mayor of this city, the police commissioner, probably. Be strong and be steady. Be – be steadfast. We’ve got this. Um, we were going to move the truck – we were going to move Red out today, just to do a little bit of slow rolls around the country here but then we hear that this – the – we’ve got this rumour. W-, w-, I’ll – I’ll update you on the rumour later ‘cause I don’t think I can let that out quite yet but, um, be safe, guys, please. Be very, very, very safe and don’t let any trouble happen. We’re trying to get

			down to Red right now to see how she's doing and we'll go from there. See you guys.
13.	7 (TRN 7(a) - at Tab 1 of Crown binder)	Tiktok video posted on Feb 7, 2022 from account bigred19755	Hey, everybody. Live from Ottawa here. So, we're just gonna do a little update tonight as I walk all baby-faced. Okay. Last night our sources were pretty clear, we knew something was happening and it happened at, at, at Coventry, okay? The snipers on the roof, blah, blah, blah. So, here's the stories we're hearing tonight. And we can't confirm them, but we just need to make sure everybody knows this. The rumors are the riot police are on their way to Ottawa right now, riot police, okay? Uh, the numbers could range anywhere from 1800 to 3000. We've heard different numbers, we've heard different stories, there's a lot of bullshit out there. I was to put this call out to everybody right now. If we go dark in Ottawa, if we go dark meaning no more social m-media, social media posts go out, that means their operation is being deployed, okay? That means they cut all our cell service, our internet, our blah, blah, blah. We have no communication to (inaudible). They start the kettle operation where they come around in full tactical gear and SWAT. They apparently have places now where they're going to start processing all us terrorists, or criminals, or whatever even though it's been the worlds, you know, largest, peaceful gathering. There has been absolutely no violence. We have the government on their head right now. They're all waiting, they're trying to find some way to demonize us they can. So, if you're... if you... if you see this, if this video gets to you and we go dark all of a sudden, that means they're here rounding us up. That means you need to get to Ottawa. Whatever means you can, you come in peaceful protest. You peaceful, and you protest. You come here and you flood this city. I don't give a shit if the entire country of Canada comes to fucking Ottawa. That's what we're living in right now, government tyranny. It is tyranny at its finest. Last night, like I said, my, my, my phone was nuts. We knew something was gonna happen. Tonight, it might not happen tonight, it might happen tomorrow but just so you know, uh, when our phones go dark, that means I want to put my tinfoil hat on that they've deployed the "No cellphone service" thing. Just know guys, we are playing with the government here. I, I thought... I w-... thought we were in Canada, I didn't think we were in China, I didn't think we were in North Korea but I'm, I'm really trying to find a hard way of seeing it. I watched a video today of an 80-year-old man get arrested because he honked his fucking horn at an intersection. Cops pulled him over and arrested him right there. This is Canada, people.

			Canada. Can you believe that you're seeing this in your country? The media blackout in this country right now is pathetic. Those big navy... the, the legacy news media, they're not reporting the, the, the... what's actually happening, they're reporting what the government tells them to. It's time we turn that shit off, we get to our social media, we get to those small little news companies that actually get the story out properly. Guy just a warning yas here, share this, spread this however you can. We're trying to keep you guys updated. Have a good night and be safe, please, and be peaceful.
14.	10 (TRN 10(a) – Tab 4 of Crown binder)	Tiktok video on Feb 7, 2022 from account bigred19755	Hey, guys. I just came down to Big Red here to fire it up. It hasn't been run in probably over a week, so. I just wanted to bring something to everybody's attention here. So, there's a guy back home...A girl that I grew up with in my hometown, Osterley, her name is Jennifer Knight (sp) and she's married now of course but I'm gonna put a sticker out here and show you what we are dealing with. So, her husband Brad D-... Brad Downing was, uh, was killed a year and a half ago in an accident out on the highway, and so she gave me this little sticker of Brad here to have on the dash. I don't know if anybody remembers, and it's in a dog tag. So, when Brad was out running around, he... that was his symbol. Um, if anybody remembers, that was a phone call that came in, uh, that cheered me up pretty good. Everybody's seen the side of Chris that can get a little bit emotional. So, uh, Brad's been riding on my dash since we left home. I met Jen and (inaudible) the day we left. She gave me that sticker. It was put out here now. So, just know we're representing so many Canadians. The ones that are here physically, the ones that can't be here physically, and the ones that have passed on. So, we have to win this, guys. There is no option for going home without answers. That is my goal, personally. And I think that says a lot for the same for of Canadians, so. Be strong people, no matter what gets thrown at us. Remember, like Gandhi did, we remember "Peace is the only option." And I don't know a lot about Gandhi, but I mean I'm just trying to do what I've been...heard in, in the... in the meetings in the last while, so. Be safe guys. Thanks.
15.	75 (TRN 75(a) – Tab 11 of Defence Binder)	Chris Barber Tiktok (#7445) posted on February 10, 2022;	Good morning, everybody, from Ontario, Canada. Could you imagine we're here? Listen, this is – this is well overdue and I gotta get this out. Law enforcement, throughout this whole process, has been absolutely amazing. Guys, everybody you talk to, the officers down here, they're out here looking after us. They're looking after public safety. That's number one. It's always been number one: public safety, driver's safety,

#	Exhibit	Name	Content
			you name it. I just gotta give this shout out to local law enforcement all the way across Ontario. We've seen – there's city police here from three hours away, four hours away. Guys, you're doing an amazing job. If I beat you up a little bit, it's usually because, you know, and les-, I've – I've mentioned this to a lot of people, it's the higher-uppers that want us gone and you're being told to do something and you're doing your job and that's it. But hats off to local law enforcement. You guys have been amazing. OPP, I gotta really say it, you guys have done your job and it's much appreciated. So, guys, when you see that officer on the street corner, give him a pat on the back. Give him a handshake. Tell him he's doing an awesome job because he is doing an awesome job. Thanks, guys.

17.	79 (TRN 79(a) – Tab 15 of Defence binder)	Chris Barber Tiktok (#9076) posted on February 12, 2022;	Good morning, Canada. Do you know how many people have come up to me throughout this ordeal from other countries? Uh, yesterday, a lady from Nicaragua got a hold of me. She said she fled [sic] the country that she was in because of the exact same reason we are fighting right now, you know that? That is scary as hell. There's people leaving this country on a regular basis. We, uh – we need to get control of this. We can't allow the government to take this kind of control over us, guys. Cornwall today, apparently a huge build-up of police. You guys, be safe, no matter what they throw at us. You remember, we are all peaceful. I've said it before, I'll say it again: they arrest you, put your hands behind your back and comply. The only thing we need to do. And the only thing some of these people are, they're wanting it to go off. They're wanting it to become violent so they have a reason to move in. Do not give them that reason no matter what. Ninety percent of the officers down here, ninety percent are awesome, the other ten we just need to remind them, "You guys took a pledge and oath to protect and to serve." Remember that, officers. Remember that when you're tearing a bouncy castle down on Wellington Street in downtown Ottawa because it's a threat, a bouncy castle. Some day when this over, I will tell some stories that will blow people's minds, but for now eye on the prize, people. Eye on the prize.

19.	84 (TRN 84(a) – Tab 20 of Defence binder)	Chris Barber Tiktok (#0461) posted on February 17, 2022.	Hey, guys. So I was heating up pretty hard right now. I just came in for a quick bite to eat before I head back out again. You know those three meals a day that I eat, my steak and all that shit? Yeah, today was a cold sandwich. Boom. Pizza going to Crown to Parliament. Police presence is huge right now. They are saying something’s coming. When it happens, put your hands behind your back, take it like a man. I will hopefully be out there. In this together, guys. We, uh – it’s a peaceful protest. It’s been told this by our lawyers that they have no right to arrest us. No right at all as long as we aren’t breaking the - the boundaries of the Emergency Act. So, the first arrest that happens down here at a peaceful protest, the government loses. Police, you gotta figure out what side of history you want to be on. You signed an oath to serve and protect. This is a lawful, peaceful protest. Tiannamen Square is not gonna happen again here today. So, do what you gotta do. I phoned my mother today and I told her, “Finally, Mom, I’m gonna become a criminal for the right reasons.” Be proud, Canada. We’ve done this together.
