Hi Matthew,

Thanks again for your understanding in regard to the speaker and graphic imagery for the press conference that took place on the Hill today. I want to address the question of signage I've attached a snip of Page 4 of the General Use of the Hill that addresses signage. I just want to make sure we're all on the same page for tomorrow.

Signs

In order to protect the safety and security of visitors to the Hill, protect the integrity of the lawns, and maintain line of sight for security personnel, certain restrictions apply to the use of signs.

All signs must be hand-held and may not be left on Parliament Hill unattended.

Signs or banners, other than plastic foam core signs, must be made of cardboard or cloth/nylon. Plastic foam core signs must be limited to 1.0 cm (0.4 in) in thickness, 41.0 cm (16.1 in) in width, and 61.0 cm (24 in) in length.

All types of signs or banners must be supported by cardboard or softwood supports no larger than 2.5 cm by 2.5 cm (1 in x 1 in). These supports must not exceed 2.0 m (78.7 in) in length. In The ends of the supports must not be pointed or sharp.

Messages that are obscene, offensive, or that promote hatred are prohibited.

Flags may be hand-held but may not be affixed to any structure or mast or planted in the ground.

We'll be enforcing these rules for all participants attending the Hill tomorrow. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.
Best regards,
