Court File No.: 22-A8288

ONTARIO
SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE
(East Region)

BETWEEN:

HIS MAJESTY THE KING

Respondent

-and-

EVAN BLACKMAN

Appellant

NOTICE OF APPEAL

TAKE NOTICE that Evan Blackman appeals against the decision dismissing his application for a stay of proceedings, made by His Honour Judge Blouin of the Ontario Court of Justice at 161 Elgin Street, Ottawa, Ontario on November 21, 2025.

THE DATES UPON WHICH THE SUMMARY CONVICTION COURT HEARD EVIDENCE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

August 14 & 21, 2025.

THE GROUNDS FOR THIS APPEAL ARE:

1. That the application judge erred in his articulation and application of the test for standing to bring an application for a stay of proceedings;

2. As a result of the above error, the application judge failed to consider any evidence proffered by the appellant on the issue of standing; and
3. As a result of the above errors, the application judge failed to consider the merits of the Appellant's application for a stay of proceedings.

ON THE HEARING OF THIS APPEAL, THE APPELLANT WILL RELY UPON THE FOLLOWING:

1. The transcript of proceedings,
2. The Appellant's appeal book,
3. The Appellant's factum, and
4. The Appellant's book of authorities.

THE RELIEF SOUGHT IS:

1. An Order allowing the appeal, overturning the decision to dismiss the application to stay proceedings, and granting the application for a stay of proceedings.

2. In the alternative, an order directing the retrying of the application to stay proceedings.

THE APPELLANT MAY BE SERVED WITH DOCUMENTS PERTINENT TO THIS APPEAL:

1. By service in accordance with rule 5, through:
